en. cester 10-6. 1948, the last game in 1948

After the Lydney game to-morrow there remains the Devon Tour and it is hoped that players will steer clear of accidents so that a full side can be taken.

The President of the Gloucester Rugby Club (A. Alcock, Esq.) who is also a Trustee of the Gloucester Rugby Memorial Fund, writes "On behalf of the Gloucester Rugby Club, I should like to thank the many thousands of supporters who have so generously contributed to the 'Memorial Fund' by buying programmes so regularly. The need for grounds for local clubs is greater than ever, but although many promising sites have been considered during the past year, it has not been possible to come to terms in any of them. No greater memorial to players who gave their lives in the War can be envisaged and efforts to obtain a site will be continued. Meanwhile the Committee is hopefully anticipating a ready response to-day and the Trustees of the Fund will gratefully receive any donation, large or small at any time."
