NOTES

The sale of programmes at the first two matches shows that the records of the past three seasons may be broken. Buy programmes regularly and ensure another splendid addition to the funds of the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band

Tom Day returns to the team for to-day's "local derby." G. Hastings has shown good form in the last two games and retains his place. V. Davies plays his first game, a slight injury keeping him out of the game last week. He has played for Swansea and is the son of a former Swansea player. He has come to work in the locality.

Lack of thrust in the backs have been largely responsible for the moderate displays up-to-date and interest will arise in the experiment of reversing the positions of Sutton and Daniell for to-day's game.

Our referee to-day is a well-known Cardiff and Minor Counties' cricketer. He has appeared many times at the Spa against Gloucester.
