NOTES

Once more County calls deplete our team, and Teakle, who is settling down nicely in the side, is honoured by Somerset.

Crabtree and Daniell were after all not fit to play against the Old Paulines and Neath, but it is hoped that Daniell will be fit for to-day. V. Davies, in the position he likes best at scrum-half, scored a brilliant solo try last Saturday, and we shall have an opportunity of seeing him in that position to-day. Two players make their first appearance in the First XV. D. Jones has been showing good form at outside half for the United and Knight's displays have attracted the notice of the selectors.

The improved form against Old Paulines was fully maintained at Neath, to give Gloucester their first win "over the bridge" since the War. Neath go all out for open rugby as the games in the last two seasons have shown, while the hospitality and sociability extended to the Gloucester party could not have been excelled, and a very pleasant trip resulted.

Old Blues did not appear at Kingsholm last season. The results of the two seasons prior to that, were wins for Gloucester by 24-8 and 10-5.
