NOTES

Gloucestershire County Players return to the side for to-day's game but Teakle (Somerset) will be away. Ken Daniell suffered a recurrence of his knee trouble after last week's game and is unfit. Michael Fletcher is available and continues his partnership with Sutton. David Jones gets another chance at outside half, where his display last week won many good opinions. Jack Watkins is still unable to resume his place in the forwards. Crabtree is still not yet fit.

Richmond are played home and away in alternate seasons, the results in the past three years having been:—

1946—7 at Richmond	Gloucester 15	Richmond 3
1947—8 at Gloucester	Gloucester 29	Richmond 3
1948—9 at Richmond	Gloucester 22	Richmond 12

Last season's game was remarkable for some wonderful goal-kicking on both sides, Willie Jones kicking a penalty from inside his own half, but in doing so started the trouble to his knee which prevented him from playing many more games. Richmond have lost all six games they have played this season, but their side should provide a good open game to-day.

The Gloucester Rugby Supporters Club are arranging Coaches for the County Match v. Somerset at Bath on November 12th.

The splendid "gate" last Saturday, in spite of the County game at Bristol, watched a splendid game, and provided a magnificent addition to the funds of the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND by purchasing programmes in good numbers.
