NOTES

Once again we receive the champion post-war club team in the Rugby world. While not attaining the great heights of last season their record to date of 12 wins, 2 draws and 4 losses, points for 235, against 82 speaks for itself. This season injuries and the retirement of Haydn Tanner have depleted the famous combination, but in recent weeks a return to last year's form has been shown. At Cardiff Gloucester have not escaped heavy defeats, but at Kingsholm the scores of the past three seasons have been 11—12, 6—12 and 0—8. Last year in a close struggle it was a solo try by Bleddyn Williams which settled the issue late in the game.

Except for Teakle, absent playing for Somerset, and Hodge, injured, Gloucester field their most experienced players, bringing Burrows back to fly-half, and Daniell (recovered from injury) and Dangerfield to the three-quarter line.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band

To-day's match is the only home club game in a spell of five weeks and the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND will need a big fillip to-day to keep up its average. Buy programmes regularly and help this cause.
