Once again the popular Taylors visit us. This season their record is played 14, won 7, Drawn 1, lost 6, points 138 to 120. Last season they gave Gloucester a good game (13—3) as they did in 1946/7 (6—3) but in 1947/8 Gloucester ran up a big score of 51—3.

It is 59 years since the teams first met at the Spa, Gloucester winning by a try to nil. Gloucester hold an advantage of wins, but the games have always been of delight to enthusiastic holiday crowds Names such as Cove-Smith, Raphael. Cheesman, MacLennan, Huskisson (England), and Will (Scotland) will always be remembered at Gloucester. Cove-Smith made 29 appearances for England and Raphael, a fine centre, was contemporary with Hudson and Gent. Will. a brilliant attacking wing, was in the team which defeated Gloucester in 1911, this being only the second Taylor's win up to that date.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band PROGRAMMES AS USUAL.

All proceeds to the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND
