NOTES

The games against our opponents to-day have usually provided free scoring and open games and the 1946/7 game, when the score was 21-14 was a particularly exciting one.

Considering that these teams are drawn from nearly twenty Universities the officials overcome their difficulties in a wonderful manner.

V. R. Tindall who played in the International Trial last week has appeared on this programme, as has H. Starkie, a centre who was thought to have a chance of a cap this season.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band

The Trustees of the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND wish all Patrons the Compliments of the Season.
