TIGER TOPICS

We extend a very hearty welcome to-day to the famous West-country side, Gloucester, who have brought with them a very strong XV. Earlier in the season at Gloucester the Tigers were defeated by 18 points to 6, although perhaps the score did not give a true indication of the evenness of the game. This week, of course, the Leicester side are hoping to turn the tables.

There are one or two changes from the side which last week drew with Cardiff—Bill Moore resuming after the Final Trial at scrum-half. No doubt a very interesting game will be seen this afternoon.

There is no match on this Ground on Saturday next although the "A" Team will be playing against Bedford Wanderers on the Welford Road Recreation Ground.

The next home match on this Ground will be on Thursday, 26th January, when the visitors will be the R.A.F. XV. Several old Tigers are playing for the R.A.F. XV including R. V. Stirling, S. T. Wright and G. R. Tucker.

A fortnight on Saturday, 28th January, the visitors will be Rosslyn Park, the famous London club, who this year have a very strong side including two from this year's 'Varsity teams.

The kick-off in each of the above matches is at 2.45 p.m.

J. E. THORNELOE, (Hon. Sec.).

DO YOU KNOW ?

(Notes on the Laws of the Game supplied by the Leicestershire Society of R. U. Referees).

Question :

Who appoints Touch Judges and what is their job ?

Answer :

Touch Judges are "mutually agreed upon" by the two sides, as is the Referee. They are responsible for seeing that a player of the proper team throws the ball in and that he has not put either foot into the field of play. They are NOT responsible for seeing that the ball reaches 5 yards. When kicks at goal are being taken they assist the Referee by standing behind the goal posts.

Any decision of a Touch Judge may be over-ruled by the Referee. (Laws 6 and 11)
