 Officers) (G), Emergency (together with all Officers) (E).

Practice has been in full swing for the past three weeks and practice games took place last Saturday and Tuesday. Troughton was hurt in Tuesday's game and a trial is given to J. Syme (R.A.F) who is stationed here, and who has played for Bath and Edinburgh Wanderers.

In the corresponding game last Season, Lydney snatched a try late in the game to record their first win at Kingsholm for many years.

Music will continue to be provided by records over the loud-speaker system, and the system will be used for team changes and other special announcements.

Once again patrons are reminded that the sale of these programmes adds to the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND. Efforts to carry out the original purpose (to provide a ground for the use of local clubs) have continued throughout the last year. The difficulties which have faced the Trustees over the last few years have up to now been insurmountable, but efforts will be continued without ceasing to obtain a suitable ground and the Trustees are hopeful that some recent enquiries may prove successful.
