The challenge of Gloucester will be a formidable one to-day. They have two Welshmen at their helm. H. L. Terrington from Maesteg at centre, who captains the side, and John Gwilliam the Welsh Triple Crown captain, who leads the pack. At half-back is another Welshman, Vivian Davies, of Swansea, a scrum-half, who is knocking at the door for a Welsh Trial.

The Gloucester pack is a good one, and Tamplin and his merry men will have to fight hard to keep the Cardiff record. Indeed to-day's match might well develop into a tactical battle forward between John Gwilliam and Bill Tamplin, the two best leaders produced by Wales since the War.
