NOTES

Our Visitors to-day have not yet recovered their pre-war strength. They are undergoing re-organisation from which good results are expected. It will be remembered that we ran up a post war record of points in last season's game, the result of which was 56 points to 3 points. A much closer game can be anticipated this afternoon.

We welcome the return to the team of the Skipper, Bob Hodge. We congratulate the 1st XV. on their performance last week at Cardiff. The press was unanimously of the opinion that we were unlucky not to at least draw.

The United XV. also played splendidly to retain their unbeaten record. This should create interest in another attractive game against Leicester "A" next Saturday when the kick-off will be 3 o'clock.

We extend our congratulations to Henry Wells and Dennis Ibbotson on their selection for the County against Somerset. Our best wishes for their success in the higher grade.

Reserved Seat Tickets for the Stand are now available for the County game v. Cornwall, at Kingsholm on November 8th and can be obtained from the Hon. Sec. Mr. A. Hudson, 58 Northgate Street. Centre 6/-. Wings 4/-. Written applications should be accompanied by stamped addressed envelope.

We wish Norman Smith a speedy recovery from his recent operation.
