NOTES

GOOD LUCK BOB.

Every Gloucester supporter will join in wishing R. C. (Bob) Hodge luck in his first International Trial at Exeter next Saturday. We all know Bob's qualities in the loose and tight and we wish him luck in his efforts to get the coveted "Cap" this year.

Good wishes, too, to Alec Lewis of Bath; may he add to the five "Caps" he won last season. That too, goes for J. Kendall-Carpenter, who although a "Pirate," has been turning out for Bath this season.

STILL GOING STRONG.

We hope Fred Hill is playing to-day, for he is fast becoming a rival to "Bumps" Carpenter in the length of his playing career. And reports have it that he is hooking as well as ever.

OLD RIVALS.

We are very pleased to welcome Bath to Kingsholm once again. They are always a hard nut to crack, and our players will certainly have to go all out to achieve success. The sides are old rivals, and over the years, it has always been a dour struggle, with honours fairly even. With two blank weeks behind them Bob Hodge and his lads should be on their metal to improve their record.

THE UNITED.

Our United (who are at Bath to-day) still retain their unbeaten record. They will no doubt have a very hard struggle to keep it, but with the attractive football they are now serving up, it should not be beyond them. They are deserving of better support and we hope to see a big crowd at Kingsholm next Saturday to cheer them on against Coventry Extra First.
