THE CHERRY & WHITES.

We could have no more famous club with which to finish our home programme than Gloucester and so we extend to them a very special welcome anticipating the usual keen fast and open game. This fixture was originally fixed for February 14th, but we gave way to allow Gloucester to play Cambridge University in aid of the Gloucester Cathedral Restoration Fund. It will be remembered that the game we arranged to play here with Metropolitan Police was scratched owing to snow but had it been with Gloucester possibly the ground would have been cleared and the match played, but the conditions would have been far different from what they are this evening.

Gloucester have always been such a good side that it is somewhat strange that they have not won here since November 15th, 1947, when they beat the following Bath side by 14 points to 8,—1 g. 2 p.g. 1 t. to 1 g. 1 t. Boltwood and Barrow getting the tries. J. Arnold, C. Porter, K. O'Shaughnessy, C. Bolwell, H. Leek, M. Spark, T. Hicks, W. Barrow, P. Boltwood, L. Harter, G. Reid, A. Burcombe, A. Todd, T. Lewis, J. Messer.

Since then the results have been—December 22nd, 1951, Bath 1 t. by T. Lewis, Gloucester 0; February 10th, 1950, Bath 1g. 1 p.g. try by Donnelly goals by Sullivan, Gloucester 1 p.g.; December 24th, 1949, Bath 1g. 3 p.g. try by Addenbrooke, 4 goals by Sullivan, Gloucester 1 g. 1 p.g. 1 t.; February 12th, 1949, Bath 2 g. 1 t. tries by Terry, Ryan and Williams, Gloucester 1 t. This season's records to date are Gloucester played 38, won 22, drawn 4, lost 12, points for 387, against 277. Bath played 38, won 17, drawn 6, lost 15, points for 340 against 285.

Gloucester go on tour tomorrow to play Devonport Services on Saturday and Penzance and Newlyn on Monday.

THE SEVENS

The Seven's Tournament has provided excellent entertainment this week and there have been good games and good crowds. As next Thursday's Finals approach interest will increase with the crowds. At present he would be clever who could predict the winner of either the Seniors or Juniors.

The Colmer Cup was first won in 1929 by Walcot Old Boys. Since then the results have been—1930, Old Edwardians; 1931, Combe Down; 1932, Walcot Old Boys; 1933, Avonvale; 1934, Combe Down; 1935, Combe Down; 1936, Chippenham; 1937, Chippenham; 1938, Avonvale; 1939, Combe Down; 1947, Avonvale; 1948, Old Sulians, 1949, Avonvale, 1950, R.A.F., Yatesbury; 1951, R.A.F., Yatesbury; 1952, R.A.F., Yatesbury.

Saturday, Bath United v. Wellington, kick-off 3.15 p.m.
