CLUB NOTES.

According to all accounts our First XV. match against Dublin Wanderers was a most thrilling one. A few minutes from time we were on the losing side, but a great effort brought a try which was converted to give us victory.

This visit to Dublin was enjoyed by all who made the trip, the Wanderers and their supporters certainly showed what they could do in the way of hospitality. We believe plans are already being made with regard to the return visit to Coventry next season.

To-day we offer a hearty welcome to Gloucester — a team which has not yet lost a match. Last week they beat Newport. While we are expecting to see open football today, we are also hoping that the run of Gloucester victories will be ended. We certainly feel we have the team to do this. It is noticeable always that rugger results are curious, for instance, we have beaten Moseley, Moseley beat Leicester last week, and Leicester have beaten us! It takes a very wise man to
