TOPICS

Today we welcome the famous West Country side, Gloucester, as our visitors. They have brought with them a strong side, notwithstanding the fact that several of their players are engaged in a County Championship Match against Devon. The Leicester side is also a strong one, although the halves, A. W. Black and Mel Channer, are both required by Notts. Lincs. and Derbys. to play in their County Championship Match today. W. J. Clarke and N. J. Grove have, however, deputised for them most successfully before.
