NOTES

Gloucester comes to Rodney Road this afternoon seeking the double. We went down at Kingsholm early this season—11 points to 6 points. Their record this season reads:—12 won, 2 drawn and 17 lost, but this is not a true indication of their strength because County calls often denude the team of their foremost players. George Hastings, who was capped for England in all their matches last year, is a forward of outstanding ability. Peter Ford (Captain) and D. Ibbotson are both dangerous foragers in a very mobile pack. John Wills, in the centre, will be remembered as a one-time Newport player.

This afternoon at the Arms Park, Cardiff, Wales entertain France and we are proud of our representation. Ken Jones exceeds George Stephenson's appearances and crowns a wonderful International record. Congratulations to Geoff. Whitson, who has thoroughly earned his first "cap."
