... .. NOTES

A warm, and sincere, welcome is extended to-night to the Gloucester Club, to whom we lost earlier in the season, at Kingsholm by 9-5 points. The games between the Clubs have, for many years now, been very close but have been played in the best of spirit, which we hope will exist for many years to come.

The Club's team for to-nights game is not known when these notes are being written, but it is hoped that some of the Club's long list of injured players will be available for selection. The list has been exceptional over recent weeks, and has made the selection an unenviable one, apart from players not being available.

Next Saturday, the Club will be at home for it's last 1st XV game on the ground this season, against LYDNEY.
