"Everybody said, quoth he, it was a famous victory" with apologies to the author. Well that phrase fittingly describes the performance of our boys against Coventry last Saturday. According to the Press reports this was the finest game played at Kingsholm this season. No quarter asked for or given and yet a delightful open game of rugby played in the best of spirits, apart for just a little incident in the second half. Our supporters who missed this match are no doubt annoyed with themselves for doing so, possibly, they were misled by the reports that we were fielding a number of reserves to replace those players selected for the County, but surely, this was all the more reason why encouragement should be given to the up and coming players. It may be at this juncture to appeal to all rugby enthusiasts to turn up when we are playing at home on a County Match day. Remember, we have some fine young players just waiting to jump into the Premier side and after all, the team that takes the field for the first side is Gloucester, irrespective of the composition of the selected side.

The match which is certainly looked for with relish is today's game. Oxford University who give us such delightful games, whether at Oxford or Gloucester, come with the following record. They have only played 3 games, all of which have been won, and have scored 55 points against 14. Not a sufficient number of games to form an accurate estimate of their capabilities but we know from experience they take a lot of beating.

This evening we are trying out an experiment in the Social Club which might be termed an impromptu hop. The floor will be cleared by 8.0 p.m. and it is for you, especially the Ladies, to pop in and enjoy yourselves. There is no charge for admission and if the evening is a success other forms of entertainment will be arranged in the future.

Season ticket holders. In view of the fact that our records of members who purchased their tickets at Mr. Hudson's shop in Northgate Street, have gone "up in smoke", it would be sincerely appreciated if all members concerned would kindly send or hand their names and addresses to the General Secretary, Kingsholm Football Ground, as it is very necessary that this important record should be kept.
