THE large number of supporters who came to Kingsholm to witness the Cardiff match must have gone home with the feeling that they had a real afternoon of exhilarating entertainment and it would be no exaggeration to say that the storm of cheering which went up when Gloucester scored, what proved to be the winning try, five minutes before the end, was the loudest and most prolonged that we have heard for many seasons past. It was quite understandable, inasmuch as Gloucester had been pressing hard for the greater part of the second half, but against a rock-like defence, and Cardiff were to some extent contributing to their downfall by their delaying tactics. Anyway, it was a fine game and most exciting, with what has already been pointed out—a tremendous finish. The Gloucester side deserved the ovation they received when they left the field.

To-day we receive a visit from Headingly and our supporters can look forward to another fine game.

On Monday next we have another team from the North of England viz Birkenhead Park, and this should be another first class game, a good holiday fixture.

On Monday, April 25th, when the Gloucester side are away on the North of England Tour, we have at Kingsholm one of the most attractive games of Rugby during the Season. We refer to the SEVEN-A-SIDE finals. To those who have never seen this type of Rugby played, you will if you come to these games have a real surprise at the fastness and the excitement you will experience. The proceeds will go towards the Memorial Ground funds, which are urgently in need of funds for the erection of new changing quarters. Your patronage therefore will be sincerely appreciated. The games commence at 6.15 p.m.
