NOTES

Those who attended Kingsholm on Saturday last must have left the ground completely satisfied after watching what must have been the finest game played this Season. Right from the start thrills were in abundance and our boys certainly deserved the great victory. If this is the type of Rugby which they can serve up regularly, then it will not take very long before the old crowds will return and our financial worries would disappear.

To-day we have a visit from the R.A.F., who always give us a first class game. Incidentally, we commenced playing this team in the the Season 1925-6 and, as far as results are concerned, we have an overwhelming advantage, having played 21, Won 15, Lost 6. Points for 284, Against 145. It will be interesting to see the battle between our two halves, who are playing against each other, viz. Mickey Booth and Gary Mace. Here are two fine players and good enough to play in any company. On current form we should get the better of the airmen but you can never tell and we should see a remarkable fine game.

A letter has been received from the Organising Secretary for the Gloucestershire Association of Boys Clubs as under:

ENGLAND v WALES

Kingsholm — 22nd April, 1961

“As you know, for the first time we have been able to get the England v Wales Rugby International brought to Gloucestershire. This can be a wonderful opportunity for publicity throughout the area and will be a first-class match. The Centre Stands will be 5/- reserved; Wing Stands 3/-; Enclosure 2/6; Worcester Street 2/-; Deans Walk 1/-. Tickets are obtainable from Schools, Youth Organisations, and Gloucester Rugby Football Club before the match.
