... .. NOTES

A sincere welcome is extended this evening to the Gloucester club for the return game between the clubs, the previous game at Kingsholm last September having been drawn 3-3. It is very much to be regretted that, so far, it has not been possible to arrange for the games to be played on Saturdays, and it is to be hoped that, before long, such arrangements can be made. The games between the Clubs, since the war, have invariably been very close, but the feeling, both off and on the field, has been of the very best.

The club will be short tonight of its two regular wing three-quarters, unfortunately, Dicky Bassett and Gordon Osborne. Apart from his general play, the latter's goal-kicking this season has been invaluable and it is to be hoped that its loss will not prove decisive to-night. Congratulations are warmly offered to Dicky Bassett on being selected for Glos'shire in their game to-night against Somerset.
