NOTES

We have our strongest rivals at Kingsholm today and the usual close struggle is anticipated. Team building is actually in the process with a great effort in completing the very best possible side to do battle throughout the Season and it is anticipated we shall produce a side well worthy of the Gloucester tradition. Up to date we have done reasonably well, bearing in mind that we have had one loss in four games, and this against Cardiff, away from home, by the narrowest of margins, viz. 6—10. Just one minute prevented us from taking their home record.

No doubt our supporters are making their arrangements to make the usual excursions to Twickenham, consequently particular notice must be made as to the arrangements for the reservation of seats for the Wales, and Ireland games.
