NOTES

ONCE again we appear to have struck a bad patch, although it must be realised that for the last two weeks we have played the two finest clubs in England and Wales. Firstly, against the unbeaten side at Cambridge, and secondly the very strong side from Aberavon. The latter had only one defeat, yet they came very nearly being beaten by our boys, although taking the game through there was no doubt as to the superiority of the visitors. Nevertheless two fairly easy penalty kicks were missed and which could have just tipped the scales in our favour.

Today we have as visitors the Old Blues who can be relied upon to give us a first class sporting game. Owing to the County Match against Cornwall we are fielding a side similar to that which paid a visit to Moseley recently and came away victorious and it is reasonable to expect they will get the better of the visitors today.

On December 2nd we have a visit from another famous side, viz., Oxford University and judging by the defeat of Major Stanley's team by them, and by a pronounced margin, we can confidently look forward to another rousing game. The kick off will be at 2.45 p.m.
