NOTES

We have started the New Year as badly as it can be remembered, after finishing the old year under the worst possible conditions. Firstly our holiday fixtures all had to be cancelled, meaning a very severe loss of revenue which at the present time the Club can ill afford, and unless there is a distinct improvement in the attendances and the standard of play, the prospects are not rosy.

Today we have as visitors one of the most attractive sides in the country with a record of having played 18, won 11, drawn 2, lost 5, with a points record of 256 for, against 110. This will be formidable opposition bearing in mind our boys certainly appear to have struck a bad patch. Our gate once again will be heavily hit on account of the televising of the International game at Twickenham and it is a pity that this again clashes with this big attraction. This is unavoidable unless revision of dates can be made in the future.

The continuous absence of J. Bayliss appears to have thrown out of gear our threequarter line and the transfer of D. Smith from the forwards does not appear to have obtained the desired result. Nevertheless there is no need for despondency, the team will be knitted together in the near future, and produce some of that sparkling play which was so enjoyable during the earlier matches of the Season.

Next week we have another attractive game against the Army and our boys will have to go all out to overcome this Opposition,

Incidentally if there are supporters who are making the journey to Bristol on February 3rd and wish to use the Social Club room they must be in possession of a members ticket and hand their names to the steward at the Gloucester R.F.C. Social Club.
