NOTES

The U.A.U. having arranged a West Country Tour at the front end of the season are our welcome visitors here this evening, an earlier date than has been customary. We are delighted to receive them when our own team is still fresh and not having been indulging in Christmas festivities. It might even be that we can adjust the results to one in our favour. For there is no doubt that the U.A.U. have a good record against us and it is time for a home victory.

After the scintillating performance of the fourteen on Saturday against Moseley, we can expect some vintage rugby tonight. Let us always remember, however, that it is difficult to keep on a peak and the best way to ensure our lads giving their best is to see that we give them all our support and encouragement.

It was noticed on Saturday that a number of children were creeping over the fences onto the playing enclosure. We welcome their enthusiasm but the practice of getting onto the field is a dangerous one and some lad may get hurt. So please will you do everything you can to see that children do not get onto the field.

SOCIAL CLUB

The Social Club Committee wish to inform all members that tea is served at half-time and after the match, every Saturday game.

GLOUCESTER COLTS

Tomorrow evening our newly-formed Colts side will be playing their first game. Like the senior side they open against Lydney. The Colts have been training hard under the guidance of Roy Sutton and while it will take time for all their plans to mature, it is certain that there will be some original ideas tried out. Do come along and support our Colts side! Kick-off is at 6 p.m. tomorrow night.
