NOTES

After an absence of some three weeks it is our first very pleasant duty to welcome our own 1st XV on their return to Kingsholm. We have read with justifiable pride of their valiant exploits 'over the Severn' and take this opportunity of congratulating them on their efforts.

It is appropriate that on their return to Kingsholm our opponents should be the famous 'Tigers'. Leicester always have held a special corner of our affections and we are pleased to welcome them once again to Kingsholm. Let us hope that the game will live up to our high expectations.
