NEWPORT

To-day it is our pleasure to welcome Newport to Kingsholm. Any team from across the Severn is an attraction but Newport has always held a special place. The games with our nearest Welsh neighbours have been among the finest seen on this ground. To-day's game will have a special significance, for we have the opportunity of registering the double. Micky Booth and his men will be going all out for that elusive prize and have been training hard for the occasion. It is our hope that the game will be worthy of the prize.

ST. JOHN'S AMBULANCE

Week after week, in fair weather or foul, the men of the St. John's Ambulance give freely and voluntarily of their services at our games. They ask for no reward save that of the satisfaction of doing their duty. To-day they are making a collection and I hope you will show your appreciation of their efforts by contributing generously when you see their collecting boxes. Thank you.
