NOTES

On the occasion of our first home game in the 1963-64 season, we welcome as our visitors our old rivals, LYDNEY. We should certainly be able to look forward to an entertaining game as our own side will be out to revenge last season's defeat, and Lydney, no doubt, will be anxious to prove their victory was no flash in the pan.

We extend a special welcome to the visitors' captain, J. Morris, who spent most of last season out of the game with a broken leg, and wish him a successful and injury-free season.

COLTS

On Monday evening at 6.0 p.m. our Colts side will be playing their first game of the season against Hereford Colts. It is hoped that this game will be well supported and these lads given the encouragement they deserve. A collection in aid of the Memorial Ground will be taken at the gates.

SEASON TICKETS are on sale at the Secretary's Office this afternoon and may also be obtained from Messrs. Hudson & Co., Sports Outfitters, Northgate Street, on any weekday.
