NOTES

A glance at the records shows that most of our matches with Leicester, the famous "Tigers", have resulted in plenty of scoring from both sides, and we welcome the famous Midlanders today in the knowledge that this game should again produce the open rugby we hope to see each week.

With Internationals, Drake-Lee and Wade in their ranks Leicester visit us with a strong side. Unfortunately, the County Championship Replay at Bristol has left the Cherry and Whites somewhat depleted, but the replacements are all experienced players and an exciting tussle should result.

Gloucester beat the "Tigers" by 9 points to 3 at Leicester in November, so our visitors will be all out to prevent the double this afternoon.

There can be no Gloucester supporter – or, even, a West Country rugger man – who is not delighted with Peter Ford's belated, but thoroughly deserved, selection for England in the match against Wales at Twickenham next Saturday.

The Gloucester Club adds its own heartiest congratulations. We're proud of you, Peter, for no club could have a more loyal member!

Not only does his selection bring further honours to Gloucester, Gloucestershire and the West Country, but also to that great local club, Gordon League. Peter is the seventh product of this famous club to win honours for his country. The previous ones are Charlie Hall, Dave Holland, Sid Smart, "Biddy" Halford, our own Tom Voyce, and, last season, Ken Wilson.

SOCIAL CLUB: The Committee of the Social Club extend their grateful thanks to all their members and supporters who purchased Christmas Draw Tickets, thus ensuring the financial success of the venture.
