OUR VISITORS

Today we extend a particularly warm welcome to our friends from Exeter, with whom we have enjoyed so many excellent games in the past, especially on our end-of-season tour.

It is disappointing that our visitors will be without that brilliant wing-forward, Dick Manley, who is nearing his 400th game for the Devon club. He is unavailable for today's game. Making his first appearance since his injury in the England and Ireland international match at Twickenham early this month, however, is Martin Underwood.

He is at centre three-quarter in partnership with John Radford, whom many supporters will recognise as the former Bristol player.

Although four of their University and College players are unavailable until next month, Exeter have brought a strong team which includes ten County players. Their record is indeed an imposing one, which reads :

P. 28 W. 20 D. 3 L. 5 ; points for 387, against 147

Judging from such free-scoring form we can look forward to yet another enjoyable and open game at Kingsholm this afternoon.
