OUR VISITORS

This evening we extend a cordial welcome to another County neighbour, Cheltenham, and many of us still remember the splendid open game with them at Kingsholm last April.

We can look forward to a repeat performance tonight, especially after the lads' brilliant display against Lydney last Saturday. This time, however, Nick Foice will be playing against his former club, whose loss, we must admit, is a very decided gain for Gloucester.

Perhaps, by way of exchange, it is interesting to note that Gary Mace, who has played so many games at scrum-half for Gloucester, is included in the Cheltenham team. We feel that the Town will find him a great asset, especially now that their skipper of last season, Mike Davies, has "hung up his boots".

Apart from the loss of Foice, Davies and two forwards, Cheltenham, have already been hard hit by injuries and familiar names missing from their team this evening are full-back Peter Griffiths, speedy winger John Jones, and outside-half, Brian Mace, the former Matson player.

So far the Town have met with mixed fortunes. Surprisingly beaten at home by Lydney, they made amends last Saturday with a creditable win over Stroud at the Athletic Ground.

During today's game a collection will be taken for the "COBALT UNIT FUND". We hope all will give generously.
