OUR VISITORS

Today we welcome Moseley, who have been regular and popular visitors to Kingsholm early every season for many more years than most of us remember.

Moseley have invariably provided us with an attractive display of open rugby, and we look forward to another splendid game today, particularly under the new laws.

With three successive victories to their credit Gloucester field an unchanged side for today's game. But our previous opponents will no doubt forgive us if we say that Moseley will give our lads their stiffest test to date.

In contrast our visitors have already played one extremely tough fixture ; they went down to the formidable Coventry side at Coundon Road last Saturday by 20 points to 3.

SUPPORT THE UNITED

Next Saturday, September 26th at Kingsholm

An especially attractive fixture
