NOTES

Bedford, our popular visitors this afternoon, have not enjoyed a successful season so far, but they have been playing attractive rugby and will no doubt provide us with another enjoyable game today,

They invariably have a lively pack of forwards who will test our lads to the full, particularly today, when they are fielding a strong side, including English Internationals "Budge" Rogers, Larry Webb and David Perry.

After a wonderful start to the season our lads have suffered three away defeats and will be anxious to make amends back at Kingsholm. Though perhaps a little disappointing for supporters, the team was by no means disgraced in their displays against strong opposition, and had the luck gone more in their favour, they would undoubtedly have won all three games.

However, let us hope that their luck will change and that they will run into winning vein again, though Bedford provide the first of five formidable hurdles this month. The others are Harlequins, Newport, Coventry and Oxford University - all on "foreign" soil except for the Harlequins' visit to Kingsholm next week!
