NOTES

It would be difficult to imagine any more popular and eagerly-awaited visitors to Kingsholm than our opponents today – the powerful Harlequins !

They are formidable opposition at any time, but this season they come to Kingsholm with a proud unbeaten record – and several Internationals – having so far amassed 177 points in only six matches !

Their victory over Swansea by 24 points to 9 last Saturday, and the thrashing they gave Llanelly last month by more than 50 points are two timely reminders that our lads will have to pull something special out of the bag to keep their unbeaten home record.

They scarcely did themselves justice against Stroud at Fromhall Park on Wednesday evening and should have won much more convincingly. But Gloucester have the happy knack of rising to the occasion against powerful opponents and we can look forward to a great game this afternoon.

You will no doubt have noticed the new metal goal posts erected since last Saturday. May we take this opportunity of tendering our sincere thanks to the firm of Fielding and Platt for such a generous gift to the club !
