OUR VISITORS

There could be no more popular nor fitting start to a new year than a fixture with London Scottish, whom we welcome to Kingsholm today.

They have no doubt by now recovered from their Hogmanay festivities, but will be anxious to celebrate the New Year further with a victory over our own lads.

Success for Gloucester, on the other hand, would be a creditable achievement, for the "Scots" visit us with the most impressive record of any club seen at Kingsholm this season.

At present they have suffered only one defeat in 16 matches, of which they have won 14 and drawn the other. They have scored 256 points and conceded only 100 – an excellent record indeed, and one which earns our admiration and congratulations !

Best wishes, too, to our own Don Rutherford, making his bid for a richly-deserved "cap" in the final English trial at Twickenham today !
