OUR VISITORS

A visit from either of the "Varsities" immediately stirs the imagination of the rugger fans. They envisage a fine, open game of rugger and are seldom disappointed.

That is why we tender a very special welcome today to Cambridge University, whom, supporters will agree, we do not see often enough at Kingsholm.

They have kept up the tradition of Varsity rugger this season by giving many spectacular displays and our own lads will be extended to the full in holding such formidable opponents at bay.

We, in turn, welcome back Don Rutherford from International duties, and John Bayliss after his injury.

Congratulations, incidentally, to John and to burly prop forward Brian Hudson, who have both displayed an admirable paternal instinct and are now the proud fathers of bonny baby daughters. Perhaps it is unfortunate that there is not yet a Ladies' Rugby Union !
