OUR VISITORS

To play, or not to play; that was the problem facing

Army earlier this week, when there were considerable dou
as to whether or not they would be able to fulfil today's fixtu

Happily, it was eventually confirmed that they would be 'TIT's parade' at Kingsholm, and we welcome them here today in knowledge that, whatever the result, they will do their utmost on the play bright, open rugby.

With County commitments now ended our own lads appear to be settling down to their best form, as successive victories over the Wasps and Cambridge University tend to prove, and they will be all out to avenge last season's defeat at the hands of the Army.

In common with all other Rugby Union matches this afternoon a minute's silence in memory of the late Sir Winston Churchill will be observed before the kick-off.
