OUR VISITORS

Today we give a cordial welcome to Guy's Hospital, with whom we always associate our own president, 'Doc' Alcock, himself a former Guy's and England player.

Guy's Hospital are particularly attractive visitors to Kingsholm and invariably provide us with a display of open rugger, win or lose.

To date they have had a moderate season, having won 11 games, drawn 2 and lost 15, but their points aggregate is on the credit side, for they have scored 309 against 295.

'Doc' Alcock will have divided loyalties this afternoon, but our own lads, only once defeated since early January, will be eager to add to their growing list of victories.

Supporters may be interested to know that Guy's Hospital Rugby Club is a great age – it was founded in 1843! They have been knocked out of this season's Hospitals Cup Competition, but last Saturday won an exciting game against Nuneaton by 14 points to 13 – a pointer to their open style of play!
