OUR VISITORS

This evening we welcome Pontypool, who kindly agreed to visit Kingsholm, in spite of many commitments, to fulfill the fixture which had to be cancelled during the Christmas holidays because of adverse weather.

We recall that when the Christmas match last season also became a victim of the weather, Pontypool came to Kingsholm on an April evening and we saw a high-scoring and exciting game.

By their standards our visitors are not enjoying a highly successful season, but last Saturday they gained a commendable away victory over the strong Ebbw Vale side.

Of 31 matches played, Pontypool have won 14, lost 15 and drawn the remaining two, having scored 304 points and conceded 368.

Our own lads are back in good form and we look forward to another entertaining game this evening.
