OUR VISITORS

To round off the old year, as it were, we give a cordial welcome this afternoon to Ebbw Vale, our Monmouthshire friends, who are having a good season. "Vale" of course, have a reputation for playing bright, open rugger, and we look forward to an enjoyable game today with our formidable visitors.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Last season Gloucester had a narrow win over Ebbw Vale at Kingsholm on Saturday, December 4th, by 9 points to 6. The Cherry and Whites scored three unconverted tries through Terry Hopson, Roy Morris and John Spalding.

Terry Tandy, the Gloucester R.F.C. Secretary, still has a few tickets remaining for the International Match between England and Australia at Twickenham next Saturday. They may be obtained from him at the office on the ground this afternoon, or from his home at 17 Ogbourne Close, Longlevens, Gloucester.

The only tickets left for the Western Counties – Australians game at Bristol on Saturday, January 14th, are for the ground (5/-), enclosure (7/6) and ringside (10/-).

Another grand Dance will be held in the Social Club this evening. Admission is by ticket only (3/- for members, 6/- for member's friends) but you may obtain these at the Social Club this afternoon.

Winning programme numbers for the Christmas holiday games: Lydney – No. 753. (This was held by a Lydney supporter from Blakeney who omitted to leave his name at the office). Old Merchant Taylors – No. 311. (Mr. Robertshaw, 3 Crescentdale, Longford). Pontypool – No. 643. (M. Salter, 4 Eastern Avenue, Gloucester). Congratulations to all three supporters, who each received £5!

A reminder that BINGO recommences in the Social Club next Monday evening - 7-45 "kick-off" with "you know who" in charge.

I would like to join the Officers, Committee and Players of Gloucester R.F.C. in wishing you all a very happy and prosperous New Year!
