GLOUCESTER

Captain: J. Groves

Our visitors this afternoon, Gloucester, as usual, will offer a strong challenge to the All Whites despite their form which this season has been rather inconsistent. No doubt they are missing Don. Rutherford their English International full-back who, with 13 caps, is their most experienced player. They are, however, very well served at outside-half by Terry Hopson who they regard as being international material.

At the beginning of the season Gloucester opened their new £15,000 Social Club at their ground, Kingsholm, and by next season hope to add floodlighting to their amenities—so Swansea can look forward to being royally entertained when they visit Gloucester next season.

The game last season at Kingsholm was won by Gloucester—12 points to 6.

Members are requested to claim their Field and Enclosure Tickets for the Wales v. England match at Cardiff in April by Monday next, 20th February, 1967.
