OUR VISITORS

This afternoon we again welcome popular tourists in Sale, who, like New Brighton, only give us the pleasure of seeing them at Kingsholm once every two years.

We are delighted to see them again, for they invariably serve up attractive ruggers. Perhaps Gloucester owe a debt of gratitude, too, to Sale for the "loan" of their International centre, Bill Patterson, a few years ago, when he was such a great asset to us.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

When Sale last visited us on Easter Monday, April 19th, 1965, Gloucester won an exciting, closely-fought struggle by 8 points to 6. David Ainge kicked a penalty goal and converted a try by Roy Morris.

Sale, who end their West Country tour – they have already met Stroud and Cheltenham – with this afternoon’s game, they have had a somewhat indifferent season. Of the 30 matches played before their tour they had won 11, lost 16, and drawn the other three, scoring 275 points and conceding 272.

There has been an interesting race over the past few months between skipper Gary White and his vice-captain, John Groves – both were expecting to become fathers just about this time.

At the time of going to press the result of the race was not known, though both apparently had the winning-post in sight.

Some members’ tickets bear the wrong date for the Clifton game. This match will, of course, be played at Clifton next Thursday, March 30th.

There will be another grand Easter dance in the Social Club this evening (8-30 – 11-45), but you are again reminded that the doors will be closed at 9-30.

Finally, the Bingo fans should note that the usual Monday evening session will not be held tonight. It has been moved to Wednesday – for this week only! It will revert to Monday evenings again as from April 3rd.
