OUR VISITORS

There are few of our supporters, if any, who can recall when Redruth, our popular Cornish visitors today, last appeared at Kingsholm – and this evening we extend a very cordial welcome indeed and trust we may be able to return some of the hospitality we have enjoyed on our many trips to Redruth on tour in the past.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Last season's Cornish tour began with a victory for Gloucester over Redruth at the Recreation Ground on Saturday evening, April 23rd, by 12 points to 6.

Terry Hopson, Dick Smith and Gary White scored Gloucester's tries, none of which was converted, though David Ainge added a penalty goal.

There is a feast of rugger for local fans these days and Gloucester themselves have an exceptionally heavy programme. They meet Cheltenham at the Athletic Ground on Wednesday evening, then travel to Wales to meet Neath at the Gnoll next Saturday. This will be followed by the game with Newport at Kingsholm next Monday evening.

Tomorrow evening there is a wide choice. Gloucester United plays Cinderford at Kingsholm (kick-off 6-15), while the local clubs will be fighting out – not too literally, we hope! the second round of the North Gloucestershire Combination Senior Cup Competition.

The usual Dance will be held in the Social Club next Saturday evening and doors will again be closed at 9-30, or earlier if necessary.

A further reminder, too, that Bingo this week in the Social Club will be on Thursday, commencing at 8 p.m.

It is hoped that Don Rutherford, Charlie Hannaford and David Ainge will all be back for next Monday's match with Newport. Meanwhile, we all extend our best wishes to Charlie for the County Championship Final at Twickenham next Saturday and hope he plays a "stormer" for Durham!
