OUR VISITORS

A very cordial welcome this evening to our powerful friends and rivals from over the border, Newport, who are always among the "top of the pops" as visitors to Kingsholm.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Last season, on Saturday, October 16th, 1965, Gloucester won a thrilling game at Kingsholm by 14 points to 13. Dick Smith went off injured in the second half and Newport came back strongly, almost snatching a late victory in an exciting finish.

Dick Smith, Roy Long and Nick Foice scored Gloucester's tries, Gary White converting one and kicking a penalty goal.

Lucky Programme Numbers

Last Saturday for the Cardiff game was No. 51, held by D. Martin, of 65 Lansdown Road, Gloucester.

The winner for last Monday's match with Redruth was No. 305, claimed by C. Phillips, of 8 Denmark Road, Gloucester.

Both were temporarily enriched by a fiver. Congratulations!

As there still appears to be a little doubt, may we remind supporters that the game with Harlequins is being played NEXT FRIDAY EVENING at KINGSHOLM, kick-off 6-15 – not on the Saturday as originally published on season tickets and fixture cards.

This will, of course, enable our supporters to see the famous 'Quins, who so willingly agreed to change the date, and also watch the Wales v. England match next Saturday afternoon, when there will be no game at Kingsholm.

A reminder, too, for the dancing enthusiasts. There will be NO dances in the Social Club next Saturday evening, nor the follow-Saturday, April 22nd.

And the Bingo session this week will again be on Thursday evening (eyes down 8 p.m.)

A.R.
