After a more convincing display against NOTTS it was expected that we might yet give RICHMOND a hard game. Team changes, plus PAT BRIGGS and PETER GLOVER on the injured list, did not help matters. Nevertheless, the score was kept to respectable proportions until the last quarter, when RICHMOND had a devastating spell to run out easy winners 29—3.

Those of us who remained at Goldington Road saw an interesting WANDERERS fixture, in which they defeated the strong EARLSDON Club side, from COVENTRY, 12 pts.—5.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION — NEXT WEDNESDAY EVENING, 4th OCTOBER, 1967 — ON THIS GROUND, KICK-OFF 5 p.m.
