OUR VISITORS

This afternoon we give a cordial welcome to Old Blues, with whom the Gloucester club have had a long and happy association. The "Old Boys", come rain or shine, always attempt to play open rugger and we look forward to another enjoyable game today.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Last season, on Saturday, October 22nd, Gloucester had a narrow victory over the 'Blues' by 8 points to 3.

The good wishes of all supporters go with the Gloucester lads on duty for Gloucestershire against Devon at Bristol this afternoon. There are two or three who must surely have impressed the England selectors – if these selectors took the trouble to come and watch them! Unfortunately, they appear to waste their time looking at inferior players.

---

Members are again reminded that although the Bar in the Social Club closes at 2-30 p.m., it re-opens immediately after today's game.

---

As Gloucester will be playing Leicester at Welford Road next Saturday, another reminder seems appropriate in these notes. Next Monday week, November 6th, is the date supporters have long awaited – for Gloucester then "christen" the new Kingsholm floodlights with an attractive fixture against newcomers to their list – the Bosuns, who have promised to bring a strong side.

Rugger under floodlights seems to add spice to the game, so come along to the "christening" – kick-off is 7-15 p.m.

There will be the usual Bingo session in the Social Club again next Monday (8 p.m.), but in the following week, because of the Bosuns' visit, it will be held on the Wednesday evening.
