OUR VISITORS

This evening we extend a particularly warm and cordial welcome to the Bosuns, who come to Kingsholm for a dual purpose – to play entertaining rugger and to help physically handicapped boys and girls at the Star Centre, opened in May, 1967, at Ullenwood Manor, on the Cotswolds near Cheltenham.

The Star Centre has 40 handicapped children in residential training from many parts of the country. It deals with the problems of further education, independence training and personality development of school-leavers suffering from a wide range of physical disabilities.

The training and guidance they receive are intended to assist these young people to overcome their disabilities sufficiently to live worthwhile and purposeful lives, and to become independent or partially self-supporting individuals.

Funds to ensure the continuance of this work and to provide for further expansion are urgently needed by the Star Centre, and the Bosuns hope to make a generous contribution as a result of this evening's match. The Gloucester club, of course, is only too anxious to play its part and a collection will be made at half-time. The Star Centre and the youngsters look for your support; they can be assured that Kingsholm supporters will give generously.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

If this evening's game is on a par with the one played last season, then there will be some exciting top-class fare. Last year's game was played on Monday, November 6th and brought a great victory for Gloucester over the Bosuns by 34 points to 8. Mickey Booth (2), John Bayliss, John Groves, Gary White, Terry Hopson and Nick Foice scored Gloucester's tries, Don Rutherford making 5 conversions and Booth adding a dropped goal.

Members are reminded that November 1st is the closing date for tickets for the international matches at Twickenham this season. They may be obtained from the Gloucester R.F.C. secretary, Mr. Terry Tandy, at his home, 17 Ogbourne Close, Longlevens, or at the office on the ground.
