OUR VISITORS

This afternoon we extend a cordial welcome to our London friends of many years' standing, Old Blues, whose type of open rugby always make them a delight to watch.

Last season, on Saturday, October 28th, Gloucester beat Old Blues in an enjoyable game at Kingsholm by 32 points to 3. Nick Foice (2), John Bayliss, Roy Morris, John Dix and Dave Owen scored tries, while Blues also had the misfortune to concede a penalty try for obstruction on Foice. Eric Stephens made four conversions and added a penalty goal.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

It was indeed rough luck on Roy Morris to suffer an injury in the final minutes of the match against Newport last Saturday and be robbed of his first championship "cap" for Gloucestershire. Roy is nursing a badly-dislocated elbow - now put back into place, of course - and torn ligaments in his upper arm and shoulder. However, we wish all success to the lads, especially our own, in their efforts to take Gloucestershire to victory over Somerset at Bristol this afternoon.

The second county championship match in the South-Western group is against Cornwall at Kingsholm in a fortnight's time - on Saturday, November 9th. Tickets for this match are available and may be obtained from Terry Tandy, either at his home at 17, Ogbourne Close, Longlevens, or at the office on the ground this afternoon, and from Messrs. Hudson and Co., Sports Outfitters, Northgate Street.

Supporters are also reminded that this weekend is their last chance to obtain tickets for the home international matches at Twickenham this season. These, too, are obtainable from Terry Tandy at his home or the office at Kingsholm.

The collection on the ground during the recent match with the Bosuns realised £67 10s. The children of the Star Centre at Ullenwood and, of course, the Bosuns, are deeply grateful for the generosity of Kingsholm supporters.

"Sunday night at the club" is proving a highly successful venture. Why not come along to the Social Club tomorrow evening and join the players, officials and supporters. The music is tasteful and soothing - no long-haired nittery! The cuisine, under the supervision of Monsieur Ron Pitt, is excellent; and you have a wide range of drinks from which to choose!

LUCKY PROGRAMME NUMBER - BOSUNS game

The gentleman who held the lucky programme at the Bosuns' game handed his £5 winnings to the Star Centre fund. Although we respect his wishes to remain anonymous, we assure him that his wonderful gesture was deeply appreciated. Thank you, sir!

Next match: GLOUCESTER v. STROUD Wednesday, Oct. 30th- (kick-off 7 p.m.)

Next Saturday, Nov. 2nd: GLOUCESTER v. LEICESTER, (Kick-off 3.15 p.m.)
