OUR VISITORS

A return to mid-week floodlit rugger brings to Kingsholm this evening our friends and neighbours from the south of the county, Clifton, to whom we extend a cordial welcome.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

Clifton's last visit to Kingsholm was on Wednesday evening, April 23rd, this year—St. George's Day, if you wish to brush up your general knowledge. On that occasion Gloucester were given a hard fight before emerging winners by 12 points to 6.

Bob Clewes scored two tries and Gary White one, while Eric Stephens added a penalty goal.

Congratulations to Gloucestershire on that magnificent win over Cornwall at the Recreation Ground, Redruth, last Saturday.

Supporters will be delighted to know that all the Gloucester lads gave outstanding performances in a side that rose to the occasion in fine style, despite the vocal efforts of the fanatical home crowd. The much-vaunted Cornwall pack were utterly crushed by the fiery Gloucestershire forwards and by the end resembled their Cornish roads—old-fashioned, quite inadequate and unsuitable for heavy traffic.

Gloucester meet Leicester at Welford Road next Saturday, when United occupy the stage at Kingsholm with a game against the Tigers' Extra 1st XV (kick-off 3.15 p.m.)

Next Saturday week, November 8th, of course, Kingsholm will be the scene of Gloucestershire's next county championship tussle, when they take on Devon, who recorded a splendid win over Somerset at the week-end, their first championship win for five years. A.R.

Gloucestershire v. Devon at Kingsholm, Saturday, 8th November, 1969. Tickets: Centre Stand 10/-, Wing Stand 6/-. Applications to T. R. Tandy, 7 Osbourne Close, Longlevens, Gloucester.
