CLUB NOTES

Welcome to Gloucester who have so far had a rather mixed season, although they did beat the Harlequins by 14 points to 6 points and Newport by 21 points to 6 points. They too are faced with a long fixture list this season and so far have played 16 matches of which they have won 9 with 274 points to their credit and 164 points against.

Today, they are without their ace goalkicker, Stephens, who scored 300 points for them last season, but I understand that they are very happy to have in his place the Cornish fly-half Tommy Palmer.

Last Saturday's 1st XV Tigers match against Swansea brought a welcome end to the run of defeats, but since all the points came from penalty goals perhaps the team cannot be too complacent.

The Extras suffered an unexpected defeat at the hands of Loughborough University, and after starting promisingly allowed the game to slip right away, playing so frustratingly badly that even the normally placid Rodney Willcox is reported to have been driven to utter words of stern reproach to more than one player.

It was left to the Swifts again to keep the victory flag flying, and encouraging reports are coming in regarding one or two of the recently acquired recruits.

A welcome from all of us to Roger Arneill who is playing his first game for the Club today
